

SAUSAGE TRUST IN COURT.

DIRECTOR SAYS ITS PROFITS ARE WASTED IN SALARIES.

Asks the Court to Let Him Have the Books of the M. Zimmerman Company Examined—Says Also That Directors Are Making Profits for Fat and Castles.

An argument between lawyers before Supreme Court Justice Ames yesterday disclosed the fact that the methods of high finance may reach into the manufacture of sausages. At least, so says Mr. Slotkin, a director of the M. Zimmerman Company, sausage makers.

Slotkin wants to go through the company's books with the help of accountants and his attorneys, as he believes such an inspection would show why no dividends have been declared since 1902, and why the profits, according to the report of the auditing committee, have dropped from $100,000 to $10,000 a year.

The M. Zimmerman Company was the result of the amalgamation of a number of small manufacturers throughout the city. Its capital stock is $300,000, and almost all the stockholders are directors. Slotkin was a small meat merchant, and for business he had sixty-nine shares in the new company and a seat on its board.

There are fifteen directors, of whom eleven draw salaries ranging from $30 to $150 a week for services. Moses Zimmerman, the president, gets $125 a week and Edward Guckenheimer, the treasurer, draws $100 a week. They own the bulk of the stock. George Gerzog, one of the eleven salaried men, gets a pension of $50 a week since he fell sick some time ago.

Slotkin is getting no salary, and he thinks that man of the salaries, amounting to $9,000 and the $100,000 profit, is being run by a relative of either Zimmerman or Guckenheimer.

Slotkin is also getting no salary, and he thinks that man of the salaries, amounting to $9,000 and the $100,000 profit, is being run by a relative of either Zimmerman or Guckenheimer.

Lawyer Gilman, for Slotkin, presented these statements to Justice Ames and declared that under the law a director has power, distinct from a mere stockholder's, to have the books of the company audited under the eyes of his attorneys.

Lawyer Einstein, for the company, said that his clients had advised him that back of Slotkin's application was a scheme to compel the other directors to buy up his stock. Mr. Einstein said that the salaries objected to were perfectly legitimate.

Justice Ames reserved decision.

RAILROADS ARE CATCHING UP.

Grain Shippers Slacken and Security of Cars Is Lessened.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Most of the railroads entering Chicago report a marked improvement in car supplies since the beginning of the year, and operating officials believe that the worst is over and from now on they will be able to fill orders with reasonable promptness. The Santa Fe still shows 2,000 cars behind its daily output, but working along with greater ease in this respect. All the roads are free from traffic blockades, and unless a severe blizzard should set in no obstructions to traffic are expected.

There has been a considerable letup in grain shipments of late and this has tended to relieve the situation considerably. At the same time, however, the heavy freight of all kinds moving as the roads can conveniently handle, and there is still enough in sight to keep them busy for ten months, to come, the directors, strongly will allow the roads to handle their traffic more economically and expeditiously.
